The Hare and the Tortoise. The way we build brands needs to be tailored to both buyer and seller, and with business in the 21st century changing at pace it is imperative we complement the classic rules of brand-building with a set of new rules that learns from how brands are built today. I therefore propose a two-stage model of brand-building ...

The Tortoise and the Hare has a parallel in sports; namely, the Tyson - Douglas upset. Mike Tyson was the Hare, and Buster Douglas was the turtle. Anyone, no matter how gifted, if they are arrogantly proud, their pride makes it as if though they do not even have the gift. Arrogant pride, can take everything away, and the thing that takes it ...
