Not the fifty greatest American short stories, just fifty good American short stories. Crane oftentimes rejected the better known works from the short fiction masters and also included some little known short stories from well-known novelists. So, there are many good stories here, but few truly exceptional ones.

Fifty American short stories—indeed, that's what's here. I read this quite a while back, and honestly, there is only one story amongst such great authors as Irving, Hawthorne, Poe, Melville, Bierce, James, O. Henry, Dreiser, Faulkner, Hemingway, Steinbeck, and 38 others (why is Updike here?), that really stands out in my mind, and which I quite often honor in remembrance.
