For a novel originally penned in 1957, James B. Garfield's Follow My Leader remains surprisingly current and fresh, especially with regard to the presented information and details on how guide dogs (how seeing eye dogs) are trained and the important truth that there generally is a steep learning curve not only for the guide

James B. Garfield actively raised both funds and awareness, and was in constant demand as a speaker, either as an advocate for the blind or as the author of Follow My Leader. He continued to serve in official roles as well. In 1960, at age 79, he began serving his second term as secretary of the California Council of the Blind.
