As far as I know, MJ never played a down of football at any level, but I really wouldn't know for sure. That's just a guess, and MJ does not stand for Michael Jordan or anyone else that you've heard of. In 30 plus years of owning apartments, houses, four-plexes and other rental properties it was inevitable. It had to happen someday.

Now here comes the crazy part, if team A wins the title, they swap rosters with team B. Both teams still hold their respective draft slot and any draft picks they may have acquired (team A does a lot of trading and often has 2-4 extra picks). I'm fine with the trade of players, but the trading the whole team if they win the title just seems wrong.
